

Ballarat is Victoria's largest inland city and is famous as the site of the world's largest deposit of alluvial gold. The legacy of the gold rush is still evident in the majestic architecture and wide tree-lined streets of the town

Situated only minutes from the Ballarat City Centre, the Barkly Motor Lodge ensures your convenience to the sights and sounds of Ballarat's award winning tourist attractions such as Sovereign Hill, Eureka Stockade Centre, Ballarat Wildlife Park & Montrose Cottage. Take time to experience the beautiful tree lined streets, rich in heritage and character, timeless period architecture. Then enjoy a walk through our magical gardens or browse along Sturt Street into the heart of the Bridge Mall. It's Ballarat's unique history and multi-cultural background that attracts local and international visitors. Upon arrival you are welcomed by professional staff who are only too happy to make your stay in Ballarat most enjoyable.
